WaterFire Providence Announces Details of the New England Bridge Conference Basin Fire on November 29, 2014

Providence, RI: WaterFire Providence is proud to share the details of a partial basin fire sponsored by the New England Bridge Conference on Saturday, November 29, 2014. The fires will be lit at approximately 5 PM and burn until 10 PM. Fire spinners Spogga Hash and Benjamin Reynolds will be performing throughout the evening.

This year, the North American Bridge Championship in tandem with the New England Bridge Conference has chosen to host one of the final of its three annual tournaments in the City of Providence. From November 27th through December 7th thousands of Bridge players from across the region and the nation will be coming together to play this highly competitive card game.

“The New England Bridge Conference is pleased to host the 2014 Fall North American Bridge Championship in Providence. Players from all over the world will be in Providence competing in the Championship. WaterFire will capture the spirit of Providence and will give the players a unique and memorable experience of their time in the city,” says Joe Brouillard, tournament Co-Chair.

The American Contract Bridge League is encouraging Providence-area residents to attend “Learn Bridge in a Day?” On Sunday, November 20th from 1-6PM, anyone can learn the basics of the game. The class is $20 and will be led by renowned bridge player and teacher, Patty Tucker. To reserve your seat please visit www.acbl.org/LBIAD.php

Tournament participants will be participating in WaterFire on November 29, and players will be staying in the city throughout the duration of the tournament and enjoying the City of Providence.
